DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-38 are presented for examination.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. This office acknowledges receipt of the following items from the Applicant:
Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) filed on January 16, 2004.
3. Information disclosed and list on PTO 1449 was considered.

Priority

4. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Specification

5. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. Claims 3,14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

7. Claims 3 and 14 recite the limitation "said reference cell" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

9. Claims 1,6,12,16-17, 35-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hanzawa et al. (Pub. U.S. Patent No. 2004/0184331).

Regarding claims 1, 12,35-36, Hanzawa et al. disclose a semiconductor memory device (Figure 1) comprising:

a memory cell (MC1) having a variable resistive element (RM) whose electrical resistance is varied; programming means (WC, [0037]) for programming data into said memory cell using the variation of the electrical resistance of said variable resistive element;

programming state detection means [0045] for detecting variation in the electrical resistance at the time of programming operation carried out by said programming means; and programming control means [0011, 0040] for stopping the programming operation by said programming means when the electrical resistance is varied to a predetermined reference value.

Regarding claim 6, 16-17 Hanzawa et al. disclose the variable resistive element is formed with an oxide of perovskite structure having manganese between electrodes (Figure 1, RM).

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claims 2, 4-5, 7-11, 13, 15, 18-22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 2, 4-5, 7-11, 13, 15, 18-22 include allowable subject matter since the prior art made of record and considered pertinent to the applicant's disclosure does not teach or suggest the claimed limitations. Hanzawa et al. (Pub. U.S. Patent No. 2004/0184331), and others, does not teach the claimed invention having wherein the programming state detection means can detect the variation in the electrical resistance of said memory cell by comparing the electrical resistance of said memory cell with the reference value fixed to a programming reference cell.

11. Claims 23-34, 37-38 are allowed.

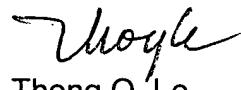

Claims 23-34, 37-38 include allowable subject matter since the prior art made of record and considered pertinent to the applicant's disclosure does not teach or suggest the claimed limitations. Hanzawa et al. (Pub. U.S. Patent No. 2004/0184331), and others, does not teach the claimed invention having an erasing control means for stopping the erasing operation by the erasing means when the electrical resistance is varied to predetermined reference value.
